Jen Croneberger

Founder & Chief Inspiration Officer

TeamJLCG.com

Jen Croneberger is a widely sought-after 4-time TEDx speaker and compassionate leadership/culture change consultant and is the Founder and Chief Inspiration Officer of JLYNNE Consulting Group, LLC and The HUMAN Leadership Institute.

Most of her last 20 years have been spent instilling confidence and building deeper connections and awareness.

Her Master's Degree is in Sports and Performance Psychology and some of Jen's clients have included professional athletes as well as organizations that include Nike, Procter & Gamble, Lockheed Martin, The US Department of Defense, The NIH and the USDA.

Jen is a "Dare to Lead" Instructor. She holds certifications from the Harvard Business School in Sustainable Business Strategy, Diversity & Inclusion from Cornell University and The Science of Well-Being from Yale University. Jen is currently an invite-only member of the Forbes' Coaches Council since 2020.

She has a podcast called The Possibility Project and writes monthly columns for a variety of publications including Forbes. She published her first book in 2012, called "These Five Words Are Mine." and is the author of the upcoming book due out in the fall, "Meet Them Where They Are: The B.R.A.V.E. Human Leadership (TM) Model for Connected Cultures."

Jen was named Female Business Leader of the Year in 2009, and "Best of 2015-2019: The #1 Motivational Speaker in the Philadelphia, PA & Washington, DC Regions." And most recently, Main Line Today magazine hailed Jen as one of its "2020 Power Women," listing her as a "Name you should know," and highlighted her long-time focus on compassion and empathy, especially significant now in the wake of the COVID-19 pandemic.

Jen is a HUGE Yankees fan who lives in the Philly suburbs (which is a difficult thing to do) with her partner who is unfortunately a Red Sox fan, (which is also difficult) and her two labs, Quinley and Benson. Thankfully, they are both Yankees fans!
